Since the opening of the Appomattox Cannery July 1st, beginning the 11th day of operation on Tuesday morning a total number of 17,012 cans of vegetables and fruits had been processed.

In the above photo you can see people busily washing vegetables and filling cans getting them ready for processing.

Mrs. Mary Ann McFadden, Manager Sam Davidson, co-manager, attribute busy season to the fact that more people ever are planting gardens, the high cost living, and the fact that we have been enough to have had seasonable weather.

Disaster Strikes

Disaster struck the John Wilson farm Tuesday afternoon when two vicious dogs of German Shepherd breeding gained access to a group of Purebred Yorkshire sows.

Two bred sows valued at $300 each were killed in the attack. Alert employees on the Wilson farm heard the disturbance and drove the animles to obtain a gun.

Wilson enjoys dogs and owns dogs but he is firm in his belief that they need to be under control. In discussing the loss, Wilson told J. A. Smith, Extension Agent, that he was instructing his employee to take positive action should other dogs venture on the property.

Smith pointed out that dogs had killed lambs and calves in prior years in Appomattox County.
